

I have had more than enough of telemarketers. Even though I have been on the NJ "no call list" for over a year, I still get multiple daily calls. Apparently if they're "offering" you an option to refinance, they're not "selling" anything. Technicalities aside, I want the calls to stop. Make the guidelines stronger and make companies adhere to the guidelines or face harsh punishment.